VI. Kumu Report - Kumu Wai

- A. kumu want to have hoolauna with all families new and old to get commit/recommitment of parents to Kaiapuni
 - B. kumu overwhelmed by data required. want to do more teaching to na'au.
 - C. $3,500 left from OHE monies last year. Kumu Wai got 3 refurbished computers that don't work instead of the 2 brand new ones she requested. refurbished computers have no support for repairs
 - D. Math and Literacy Night tomorrow. 250 supposed to come.
 - E. Kumu support IP transitioning to seeing your keiki perform, keiki arts being showcased in hana keaka etc... not so focused on fund raising... but Haumana raising!
- VII. Treasurer Report - Noe Kauahikaua. Ardis -non present - gave report by phone to Noe
- A. Bank Current Balance: $13,745.55
 - B. Imi Pono (rough estimates)
 1. Gross Revenues: $7496 + approx $5,000 in safe. Hawaiian plate gross sales day of IP : $2,190.
 2. IP Expenditures to date: $3790.96. includes $3,624.76 in Hawaiian plate costs. This was a high expense for HMOP this year. Very few food donations. HMOP has paid as little as $1,000 in past.
 3. Projected expenses (papa earnings): Papa 6 = $1,115 ($400 waffle dog booth expense to be absorbed by Papa 6), Papa 3 gross profit = $ 574, Chow Mein booth gross revenue: $536
 4. For the 2nd year, Kōkua Hawaii Foundation mini-grant came through. We received $525.37 to cover total cost of all paper goods for our event. unbleached 5 compartment luau trays, compostable 4 oz portion cups w/ lids, compostable drinking cups, paper straws, shave ice bowls, chow mein "boats", shave ice spoons, forks, sporks
 5. Total profit= $1,936 + approx $5,000 (check in safe) = approx $6,936
